ANOTHER INTERESTING DAY

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S WORK YESTERDAY.

New Haven County Caucus-Mr. Dow for Assistant Judge, New Haven City Court -Two County Commissioners Chosen, Dun-bam and Walter-A Move for Better Roads-Big Hats at Theaters-State Flnances-A Probable Deficit-School for Nurses for New Haven's Grace Hospital-Many Other Matters.

Hartford, Feb. 6.-The New Haven county caucus of the republican members of the general assembly took place at the capitol this afternoon. The members met in the room of the committee on fisheries, where these meetings have previously been held, but as that committee had a hearing an adjournment was made to the room of the committee on claims. Representative Tucker of Ansonia was chairman and Representative Walter of, Cheshire, clerk. Representative Newton proposed At-torney A. McC. Matthewson of New Haven for assistant judge of the city court of that city and Senator Johnson seconded the motion. Mr. Newton then presented a petition from a number of Jewish citizens of New Haven in favor of the nomination of Attorney David Strouse of New Haven. He also referred to the candidacy of Attorney Charles Kleiner of that city, and put in a petition signed by seventy-five. He spoke warmly as to the qualifications of Mr. Kleiner, and said that while he was committed to another candidate he would make the motion that Mr. Kleiner's candidacy come up two years He said he favored non-partisan judges, and if a democrat was to be elected the republicans, when in power, should make the selection.

Representative Chaffee of Derby said it was unfortunate that the republicans of New Hayen were not united on a candidate. If there had been unity he would have been felt called upon to heed it, but under the circumstances he felt that he could vote as his preference dictated. There had come about among the young republican element a feeling that they should have their say in everything. The young gentleman whose name had been put forward belonged to that class, but they had had their share. He would therefore pre-sent the name of an old worker in the republican party and a man who was above reproach. On account of his age if he was to be rewarded with office it must come to him soon. The young men could wait. He was united to this man by the ties of comradeship. This man had fought four and one-half years for his country. He took pleasure in placing in nomination Captain Edwin C. Dow of New Haven. The nomination was seconded by Representative Morrill Representative Elliott of New Haven said that until yesterday he did not know that Mr. Dow, who was a candidate was the Captain Dow of his acquaintance, else he would have voted for him. As it was he was committed to Mr. Matthewson.

Representative Granniss of East Haven spoke for Mr. Dow, who, he said, had the support of Admiral Foote post. Representative Page of Meriden said he should respect the wishes of New Haven and vote for Mr. Matthewson. Representative Range of Guilford said it was unfortunate that New Haven was divided on their man. Under the cirimstances he would vote to the best of his judgment. Representative Newton spoke again for Mr. Matthewson, who, he said, was favored by the chairman of the town committee, by the New Haven member of the state committee, the registrar of voters and the Young Men's Republican Representative Downer of Hamden said he had heard that the New Haven members had got together and had a last united on a candidate, but now he learned that was not so. Senator Johnson said it would of East Haven an informal ballot was taken, resulting in 23 votes for Mr. Dow and 8 for Mr. Matthewson A motion was then made to make the nomination of Mr. Dow unanimous and there was only one dissenting voice-Representative Newton.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS. After the nomination for the assistant judgeship had been disposed of nominations for county commissioners were in order. A. B. Dunham of Seymour was renominated by acclamation.

James Reynolds of New Haven there were a number of candidates and there ensued one of the prettiest fights that has taken place since the general assembly convened. Representative Eaton of North Haven proposed Andrew F. Austin of that town and Representative Page of Meriden seconded it. Representative Carter of Waterbury spoke in favor of Charles C. Horne of that town. Representative Range of Guli-ford proposed Hart Landon of that town. Hart D. Munson was favored by Senator Johnson and Representative Newton of New Haven. They made long and earnest speeches in favor of Mr. Munson, urging the necessity of selecting a commissioner from New Haven, which furnished most of the business before the commission

Other speeches were made, the contest being waged with spirit for at least an Finally a call for an informal ballot prevailed.

The first informal ballot was as follows: Hart D. Munson, New Haven, 5; Wilson B. Coe, Madison, 1; Charles C. Horne, Waterbury, 4; Jacob D. Walter, Cheshire, 6; Marcus E. Baldwin, Woodbridge, 3; Hart Landon, Guilford, 3; Audrew F. Austin, North Haven, 6; Oliver Abel, North Haven, 2.

On the fifth ballot the nomination of Jacob D. Walter of Cheshire was made unanimous, he receiving 17 votes and Hart D. Munson 13. Mr. Walter is thirty-eight years of age and was born in Hamden. When only six months old he went with his parents to Kansas with the Emigrant Aid company of New Haven. The family returning east located in Sullivan county, Y., remaining there from 1867 to 1882, in which year Mr. Walter came to Cheshire, where he has since resided. He was a merchant until 1884, when he engaged in farming and is now so employed. He has been a memfor the past ten years. On two oche declined. In November he was epresentative-92. He is clerk of the New Haven county republican caucus Mr. Walter is very popular and after his nomination he was heartily con

Among the New Haven people at the capitol to-day, many to watch the contests in the county caucus, were Chairman James Macdonald of the town committee, Hon, J. D. Dewell, James Bishop, Attorney Matthewson, T. Attwater Barnes, Dr. Jenkins, Corporation Counsel Ely, W. J. Atwater, Hon. Herbert Benton, B. F. English, Dr. C. B. Adams, Dr. M. J. Adams and Captain Dow.

FOR CHEAPER TELEPHONES. Senator Marigold this afternoon introduced a bill in favor of cheaper tele phones. The bill provides that the rates shall be for lines where more than one telephone is in circuit, not more than $3 a month, and where there is only one phone on the line that the rate shall be no more than $4 a month. The bill further provides that charges for out of town connections shall be no more than fifteen cents for the first five minutes, and five cents for each additional five minutes. TEN HOURS FOR MOTORMEN. A bill was introduced by Senato Marigold providing that motormen and conductors on street rallways shall not be obliged to work more than ten hours a day, except on holidays and other special occasions, when they shall be paid for overtime.

PUNISHING CRUELTY TO HORSES. In the senate a bill was introduced making it a penalty with a minimum fine of $100, maximum fine of $200, one year imprisonment, or both fine and imprisonment, for docking horses' talls. The penalty applies not only to the person performing the operation, but also the person who authorizes or permits it being done.

OTHER SENATE MATTERS. This was the first day that bills have been printed on the calendar in the senate. Heading the list were two bills on insurance matters, which the chair-man, Senator Fuller, called up and had disposed of in his usual energetic man-

A bill was then introduced and referred to the judiciary providing that holders of mortgages on real estate, to an amount exceeding $50, may petition the superior court for a judgment of debt.

A bill providing that boards of relief may exempt property of old soldlers to the amount of $2,000 Instead of $1,000 as is now the law, was referred

A DEFICIT PROBABLE.

There was a large grist of bills and petitions introduced in the house. among the more important matters was a report of the state treasurer in re-sponse to the resolution of Mr. Hicks f Tolland, a statement showing the probable income of the estimate of 1895 and 1896. This is the estimate: Commissioners of phar-

The treasurer stated in his communiation that from the books left by his mate of the probable expenditures. Possibly some idea of the amount could be obtained from the last report of the omptroller. An examination of the omptroller's report shows that the total $4,389,091.15. If the amount should be personal property of $150; registration ome as estimated, there would be a deficit of $571,000. A HIGH SCHOOL MEASURE.

The committee on education will have an important bill concerning high schools to consider. It was introduced to-day by Representative Backus of Andover, and is as follows:

Section 1. That children residing in 1, 1895. any town in this state, which does not maintain a high school, may attend any onveniently located high school in any other town, having ressonable accomnodations for such children, upon the same terms as to qualifications and conduct as are required from the town pects of New Haven's having a cremawhere said high school is located.

Section 2. The tuition of such nor resident children shall be paid by the comptroller to the town maintaining of the officers it was shown that insaid high school at the end of each terest and confidence in this method school year, at the rate in force January 1, 1895, said rate shall not be changed hereafter except upon the approval of the state board of education for good cause shown.

AIDING THE LAW LIBRARY. A bill was put in by Representative Newton which is as follows:

Resolved. That the treasurer of the ounty of New Haven shall annually on the first day of January pay to the New Haven County Law Library association the sum of $1,500, in view of all the other sums required by law to be paid to said association by the county of New Haven. Such sum so paid shall be applied to maintain and enlarge such library for the use of the courts and he citizens of said county judiciary, Judiciary. FOR BETTER ROADS.

Representative Hicks of Tolland in roduced a bill regarding "good roads" and it was referred to the committee on oads and bridges. It provides that county commissioners shall employ inmates of workhouses when not otherwise employed (except they be confined for state prison offenses), for con struction, macadamizing, straightening, widening, levelling, and repairing of the main thoroughfares of the state ber of the republican town committee | County commissioners may make the necessary rules and regulations in such casions his friends have urged him matters. The expense of such work for the position of commissioner, but shall be divided as follows: 50 per cent. B. Kenyon, John Noo.

THE BIG HAT NUISANCE. By request Mr. Eaton of North Haven ntroduced a bill to prevent the wearing of big hats in theaters. The big hat bill will create a sensation in Connecticut. It is radical in its provisions and will certainly result in abolishing a nuisance which causes so much audible as well as silent profanity. According to its provisions, the erson who, while sitting in a theater, obstructs the view of another person ikewise seated in a theater must be ejected from the house, but cannot be ined for misdemeanor.

In brief, the bill makes the owner or essee of the theater liable for the comfort of the patrons.
